

Recorded Roundtable

Creating a Positive Learning and Working Environment

OVERVIEW:

Recent challenges across the world have transformed the way that people live. For many parents, this includes accommodating the needs of their children alongside their professional responsibilities within the confines of the home. Many are finding it difficult to strike the right balance between family and work responsibilities while managing their own wellbeing.

This session will help participants to re-establish that sense of balance and introduce strategies to help them feel more in control and able to fulfil their multiple roles. We will look at how to create a home environment and schedule where children can discover, learn, grow, and thrive and parents can meet their job obligations.

Key Points Covered:

- Balancing conflicting demands and responsibilities
- Implementing strategies for helping children adapt to the new norm
- Exploring ways to create an effective schedule for meeting the needs of all the family
- Establishing ways to help children learn and grow
- Learning tips for supporting the varying needs of the family
